

1. Online Manuscript Submission

Springer now offers authors, editors and reviewers of International Journal of Parallel Programming the use of our fully web-enabled online manuscript submission and review system. To keep the review time as short as possible, we request authors to submit manuscripts online to the journals editorial office. Our online manuscript submission and review system offers authors the option to track the progress of the review process of manuscripts in real time. Manuscripts should be submitted to: <http://ijpp.edmgr.com>.

The online manuscript submission and review system for International Journal of Parallel Programming offers easy and straightforward log-in and submission procedures. This system supports a wide range of submission file formats: for manuscripts &mdash; Word, WordPerfect, RTF, TXT and LaTeX; for figures &mdash; TIFF, GIF, JPEG, EPS, PPT, and Postscript. PDF is not an acceptable file format.

NOTE: In case you encounter any difficulties while submitting your manuscript online, please get in touch with the responsible Editorial Assistant by clicking on CONTACT US from the tool bar.

2. Submission is a representation that the manuscript has not been published previously and is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. A statement transferring copyright from the authors (or their employers, if they hold the copyright) to Springer Corporation will be required before the manuscript can be accepted for publication. The Co-Editor will supply the necessary forms for this transfer. Such a written transfer of copyright, which previously was assumed to be implicit in the act of submitting a manuscript, is necessary under the U.S. Copyright Law in order for the publisher to carry through the dissemination of research results and reviews as widely and effectively as possible.
3. Type double-spaced.
4. An abstract (in English) is to be provided, preferably no longer than 150 words.
5. A list of 4&ndash;5 key words is to be provided directly below the abstract. Key words should express the precise content of the manuscript, as they are used for indexing purposes.
6. Figures (photographs, drawings, diagrams, and charts) are to be numbered in one consecutive series of arabic numerals, and captions should be provided. Figures should be separate, not interspersed with text. Drawings should be prepared with india ink. Either original drawings or good-quality photographs are acceptable. Photographs should show high contrast. Tables should be numbered with roman numerals and referred to by number in the text. Each table should be typed on a separate page. Tables should be numbered with roman numerals and referred to by number in the text. Each table should be typed on a separate sheet of paper.
7. References should be listed numerically at the end of the paper. Use the appropriate superscript numeral in parentheses for citation in the text.
8. Footnotes should be numbered using a separate set of numerals and should be typed at the bottom of the page to which they refer. Place a line above the footnote, so that it is set off from the text. Use the appropriate superscript numeral without parentheses for citation in the text.

Author Instructions International Journal of Parallel Programming

9. Portions of program text will be photographed (not typeset). By a notation in the margin, indicate which parts of a manuscript page are program text. Also, for those pages only, supply a clear dark copy of the program text (or of the whole manuscript page).
10. In general, the style of the manuscripts should follow the recommendations of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers in its Style Manual. The Editors, upon accepting a manuscript, reserve the right to introduce style changes consistent with the overall style of the journal.
11. The journal makes no page charges. Page proofs will be sent to authors (for multi-author papers, proofs will be sent to the author designated), together with a reprint order form with the current price schedule. Proofs should be returned to the publisher within 48 hours of receipt. The completed reprint order form preferably should be returned with the proofs, but may be returned separately no later than 10 days after receipt of proofs. Corrections to proofs should be restricted to those involving technical accuracy, rather than stylistic considerations. Substantial alterations should be avoided.
12. Springer Open Choice. In addition to the normal publication process (whereby an article is submitted to the journal and access to that article is granted to customers who have purchased a subscription), Springer now provides an alternative publishing option: Springer Open Choice. A Springer Open Choice article receives all the benefits of a regular subscription-based article, but in addition is made available publicly through Springer's online platform SpringerLink. To publish via Springer Open Choice, upon acceptance please visit www.springeronline.com/openchoice to complete the relevant order form and provide the required payment information. Payment must be received in full before publication or articles will publish as regular subscription-model articles. We regret that Springer Open Choice cannot be ordered for published articles.
